

SHELLEY HENRY
DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

July 27, 2015

RecognitionArt has become our go-to company for donor displays at our school. We currently have three beautiful, custom designed displays on our campus, and because of our great past experience, we are working with RecognitionArt once again for a display in our new alumni room.

Our customer service representative, Larry Greenwald, offers great advice and has met our needs professionally and efficiently. He is always patient in providing options and explaining costs; he works hard to provide a finished product that is the best fit for us.

The fact that we have chosen to work with RecognitionArt not once, not twice, but now three times, speaks to our satisfaction with their products and their service. We are pleased to recommend them to any other school or business.

Sincerely,

Shelley Henry
