

February 18, 2009

Christ United Methodist Church's special gifts committee was very pleased with the results of the work done by Recognition Art. I was the primary contact working with Larry and his staff. I found everyone to be pleasant to work with and professional. They met all deadlines, even though we did not!

I would say in the event we require another piece of art such as this, we would definitely select Recognition Art as our resource.

Gail Barzilla
Executive Director of Operations